

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., OCTOBER 25, 1883.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address All Communications

NIGHT to a hole that was newly made, Stood a Maysville sow with a back like a blade,
And this she said to a small bull-pup:
"I rooted it up—I rooted it up."

The fall grass never looked better than it does now.

The street cars continue to be well patronized, and are doing quite as well as was expected.

NOTWITHSTANDING the reduction of tax the five-cent box of matches has not increased in size.

THE Handy No. 2 will be ready for service about the 15th of November.
She is expected to be a flyer.

THE "decline and fall off" of the hog empire in Maysville is devoutly wished for by all decency-loving citizens.

BARNY McAULEY will appear at the opera house, December 3rd, in the new and popular play, "The Jerseyman."

PLEASE remember that another Maysville enterprise is a new steamboat that cost about $20,000 and will probably be the swiftest on the river.

REV. DR. RUTHERFORD of Paris, will preach at the Presbyterian Church this evening, and to-morrow evening also.
Our citizens should not fail to hear this distinguished minister.

Old folks and nervous people should go to Kackley's gallery for pictures by the lightning process. Don't wait for sunshine, any kind of weather will do.
Kackley's dry plates will do you up.

A DISTINGUISHED botanist has found that by simply soaking the stems of cut flowers in a weak dye solution their colors can be altered at will without the perfume and the freshness being destroyed.

Though numerous cases may operate to turn the hair gray, all that is needed to restore the natural color is Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. For more than twenty years its sales have been enormous, but we have yet to hear of its first failure.

MESSRS. CHENOWETH & Co. of this city, have lately bought the right to manufacture Wills' World Worm Candy and will at once put large quantities of this excellent medicine upon the market. It is a very valuable remedy and will have a certain sale.

A WARRANT was sworn out, this morning, by Thomas Lashbrook, charging Marshal Boston, colored, with committing the rape upon the person of Lucy Connors. The case seems to be somewhat complicated, as it is claimed that James Carlisle has been identified as the perpetrator of the outrage.

Tony Denier.

Referring to the Tony Denier pantomime troupe, which is to appear at the Opera House this Thursday evening, the New York Mail and Express says:

"Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe is the best company of the sort in existence. It has been much improved since last year, and includes now a large number and variety of special features. Its performances were attended by crowded houses in the Windsor last week. It is now gone to Boston, and will appear in Brooklyn next week. Mr.
Denier seems to satisfy the popular demand for fun fully."

Mr. Gilbert's Readings.

Do not forget the readings by Rev. A.
N. Gilbert at the Christian Church tomorrow night. The programme will have a variety to gratify all tastes, the serious, the sentimental, the esthetic and the fun-loving. A part of the programme will enable Mr. Gilbert to show his ability in the rendering of dialect. Only season tickets sold. For sale at Kackley's and Phister's.

PERSONALS.

Mr. James Kehoe left for Louisville this morning.

Mrs. Maria Hixson, we regret to announce, is seriously sick.

Col. J. M. Stockton and wife left this morning to visit the exposition at Louisville.

Mrs. Cooper and Miss Mamie Cooper, of Covington, are the guests of Mrs. A.
R. Burgess, of Second street.

Mrs. Isaac W. Thomas left for Louisville, this morning, to attend the exposition and to meet her relative, Lady Woolsey, of England, who is visiting this country.

The Carlisle-Connors Case.

Notice was made in the BULLETIN of the 24th inst. that a warrant had been issued by Magistrate John L. Grant for the arrest of two colored men named Kyle, who were accused of committing a rape upon the person of Lucy Connors, colored, on the 23rd inst. After the warrant had been issued it was ascertained that the men charged with the crime bore the name of Carlisle, and it was accordingly changed. Deputy Marshal W. B. Dawson and Ex-Marshall James Hedlin were selected to execute the warrant, and yesterday arrested John and James Carlisle, and brought them before Justices John L. Grant and M. F.
Marsh for examination. The trial was not concluded yesterday, but the facts developed by the evidence so far as given, are as follows: George Connors and his wife, Lucy Connors, live on the Flemingsburg turnpike, about one-half of a mile from this city, and a mile and a half farther on is the home of Henry Ballard, another colored man. The two families are intimately acquainted. Ballard's wife has been sick for some time, and Lucy Connors being a neighbor and friend, had called to see her on several occasions prior to the evening of the 23rd. About ten o'clock on that night a man rode up to the Connors house, and calling Lucy out told her that he had been sent to take her to see Ballard's wife who was dying. She got upon the horse behind the man and rode with him some distance until they came to a lonely part of the road. Here he produced a pistol and making her dismount from the horse forced her to yield to him, threatening to "shoot her through her" if she screamed. Powerless to prevent it, the outrage was committed and the woman detained for about an hour.
James Carlisle was identified by the woman as the ravisher, and as there was no proof that John Carlisle was concerned in the crime he was discharged from arrest.

The Hog Question.

The city council lacked the courage to abolish the right to keep and breed hogs in Maysville and submitted the question to be determined by those who were interested in making a pig-sty of the town.
Suppose the right to maintain other kinds of nuisances were submitted to the popular vote what would be the condition of the city in a short time? Shall ashes be thrown in great piles in the public thoroughfares? Shall other accumulations of litter and filth remain? Shall bawdy houses be kept on every street? Shall liquor shops be allowed at any and every place? Would it not be quite as proper to take the sense of the voters upon these and similar proposition, to relieve city councilmen from the responsibility of doing their obvious duty, as to submit the question of keeping and breeding hogs to the votes of the owners and breeders of hogs in Maysville?

It is a detestable nuisance, and every man in the city in favor of decency should vote against continuing it; and if a majority of votes should, unfortunately, be cast for continuing the filthy business, it will then be the plain duty of the decent men and women of the town, who are opposed to the annoyance of having hogs running at large in the city and trespassing without restraint upon their premises, to petition the Legislature for an amendment to the charter of the town, taking away from the Council all power to allow hogs to be kept or bred in the city. Such a move would be eminently proper, as the Council has shown itself utterly impotent to deal with the matter.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

The theatrical troupe are stopping at the Toller House.

Mrs. Will Davis, of East Maysville, was visiting Mrs. Matt. Hartman, of Fourth street.

Mrs. Hamilton Gray, in company with Mrs. Hugh Power, was visiting at the residence of Dr. Moore.

Judge Phister's daughter, Miss Amy, accompanied by her friend, was visiting on last Sunday, Mrs. Ruth Moore.

During this beautiful month of October there have been a great many visitors in the town, but we failed to ascertain their names.

The owner of that handsome thoroughbred sorrel named Cyril, never fails to attract attention when taking an airing on the boulevard.

Another Matrimonial ad on dit is that Miss Celia Rains will no longer indulge in her "maiden meditation of fancy free," will soon don the title of Mrs. —.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. Irene Lord was married to Mr. A. P. Botts, at the residence of her parents. The bridal couple left on the noon train for Louisville, Ky.

"An unbeloved wife," who ought to know of that of which she speaks, because she has so much experience, says that the reason that ladies look so to money, in the matter of marriage, is that nowadays they so seldom find anything in a man worth having.

Surely there must be a printer's devil in the BULLETIN office, who prints mischievous pranks with our items. He twisted one name into Shears, and he Mrs. a masculine, he lends where it should be led, and he woo's where it should be who, and he seems to have a decided aversion to a sorrel horse called Cyril.

The theatrical troupe that is stopping in our town, performed last night at the Baptist Church, which has been converted into an opera house for the occasion. "Lady Audley's Secret" was witnessed by a large and fashionable audience, which was so encouraging that the troupe has consented to remain in the gap-seed of the week.

Our item on gal-seed seems to demand the amende honorable. There was nothing personal intended for the gentlemanly proprietor of our fine, well supplied drug store, judging by the quantities consumed by the stoppers we naturally thought that the most enterprising firm imported them, but as far as we are concerned it has no effect, we wear an invulnerable armor of indifference. The allusion was not to the behalf of friends and strangers who find this breach of politeness very annoying.

Kick Against High Prices.

Ed. Bulletin: In yielding to the popular clamor to remove the old market house, it is now manifest that the city councilmen committed a great error. The old market house, when conducted under proper rules, was one of the best regulators of prices of such commodities as enter into the daily consumption of all our citizens, that ever exerted any control in Maysville. Since the removal the hucksters and green grocers have pri es their own way, without any restraint, and today prices of the ordinary means of living are higher in Maysville than at any other named place. First rate butter may be had at any of the neighboring towns, and even at Cincinnati, from 15 to 20 cents per pound, and within eighteen miles of Maysville it is advertised at 12 cents per pound. Potatoes sell in the groceries at from 60 to 80 cents per bushel, while by the quantity they may be had from the farmer at half those prices. Other articles of common food are alike exaggerated in price, because of the loss of competition from the market house.

The object of this article is to direct public attention to the high prices we are called upon to pay for all articles of food and to suggest to the council the propriety of re-establishing a public market house where our citizens could buy first handed from the producers. A well regulated market would be a great benefit to the town, and if the proposition to establish one was submitted at the next town election to the decision of the voters, it would be carried with enthusiasm. The hog nuisance would not have anything like as many advocates as the re-establishment of the market.

CITIZEN.

Maysville Hogs.

Mt. Olive Democrat.

Hogs are not so numerous upon our streets as they were a few weeks ago. We are more fortunate than our Maysville neighbors, where, it is said, the hogs climb upon the new street cars and take rides at pleasure.
